"An Old Friend" was written and produced by Dwayne Williams, a helicopter pilot who flew with the 175th Aviation Company in Vinh Long, South Vietnam - from November 1966 through November 1967. After his honorable discharge from the U.S. Army in October 1969, he remained active in the helicopter industry and was Chief Pilot for Bell Helicopter prior to his retirement in 2005 after serving 32 years on the test pilot staff. He was also Chief Pilot, Director of Flight Operations at MD Helicopters in Mesa, Arizona for 4 years before returning to Arlington, Texas where he is still an active test pilot specializing in Night Vision Goggle certification for commercial aircraft, both helicopters and airplanes.

Dwayne is also a recipient of the FAA's prestigious Wright Brothers Master Aviator award in 2016 - recognizing 50 years in aviation with no accidents and the AHS International Fredrick L. Feinberg award in 1993 for demonstrating outstanding skills or achievement the previous year. He has been married to his loving wife, Lynnette Williams, for over 52 years.
